Jesse White Announces Chicago Blackhawks and Chicago Cubs License Plates For Sale At Chicago Auto Show

Who: Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White

What: Will be at the 103rd Annual Chicago Auto Show to announce the sale of Chicago Blackhawks and Chicago Cubs permanent Illinois license plates at the show.

When: Friday, February 11 at 8:30 a.m.

Where: Chicago Auto Show, McCormick Place, 2301 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago, 60616 at South Hall 300 (SH300).

Why: To support public schools throughout the state of Illinois and express team spirit for the Chicago Blackhawks and Chicago Cubs.

Public Act 095-0331, enacted in 2002, allows for Illinois sports teams to have license plates, designated as Professional Sports Teams license plates. The Chicago Blackhawks and Chicago Cubs are the only two sports team in the state to take advantage of the law thus far.
